

CONNECT

- 1 industry event -- Clean Currents -- that can claim to be the undisputed home for the North American water power community.
- 2,021 registrants for Clean Currents, who connected, exchanged knowledge, and conducted business in Portland, Oregon
- 814 individuals attending NHA's Regional Meetings in Auburn, Alabama; Des Moines, Iowa; Juneau, Alaska; and Redding, California (22% increase from 2023)

ADVOCATE

- 111 Congressional offices that 118 industry professionals from 32 states + DC met with on Advocacy Day, held during Water Power Week in Washington
- $2.8B US DOE estimated economic impact of hydropower incentives announced (subject to finalizing award contracts) for 294 projects under section 247
- $1.5B NHA's estimate of the value of the U.S. Treasury Department's groundbreaking clarification governing "repowering" of existing hydropower facilities.
- $200M federal appropriations for the U.S. Department of Energy's Water Power Technology Office -- highest level of funding ever for marine energy
- 13 U.S. Senators (6 Rs, 6Ds, and 1 Independent) that sponsored or co-sponsored the "Preserve and Enhance Hydropower" tax bill

INFORM

- 595K national climate policy thought leaders reached during a paid digital media campaign (national and Northeast regional)
- 278K D.C.-area thought leaders reached via a paid digital media campaign
- 170 learners taking NHA's new Hydropower System Principles Overview training (the full course launched in January 2025)
- 10,159 readers of the weekly NHA POWERHOUSE e-mail
- 275 event reports in NHA's member-only Operational Excellence online resource tool

IMPLEMENT

- 337 NHA Member Organizations (an all-time record)
- 11 average number of member-only programs offered each month (webinars; committee, council, and roundtable meetings; and other programs)
- 39 number of new NHA member organizations